

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

1 Name of the theme of the project: Art pedagogy and art therapy for the prevention of suicidal behavior among young people in Kazakhstan: development of scientific foundations and practical technologies

2. PROJECT DESCRIPTION

1 Purpose and objectives of the project

The aim of the project - a scientific basis and development of the art pedagogy and art therapy technologies and techniques in the prevention of suicidal behavior among young people in the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The aim of the project is achievable through the phased implementation of the project objectives, as a result of the research team on the basis of two laboratories Research and Innovation Center for Educational Research, collaboration of researchers and specialists in the field of education (school psychologists, social educators, and others.).

Objectives of the project

- explore the best practices of the world in the development of national and regional art pedagogical and art therapy schools and to use it in practice, and psycho-preventive work;
- to study the problems and state of the art pedagogy and art therapy services in Kazakhstan, summarizing the experience of existing centers, practitioners of art pedagogy and art therapy with different categories of people;
- provide a scientific basis art technological approach to the problem of prevention of suicidal behavior among young people;
- to approve the art pedagogy and art therapy techniques and technology in working with suicidal youth-directed;
- to introduce the practice of individual schools art pedagogy and art therapy, techniques and technology in terms of prevention of suicidal behaviors of students.

When implementing the first task will be made a theoretical overview of the experience of the world in the development of national and regional art pedagogical and art therapy schools, on the basis of this review will be made of summary-overview map practitioners services and development centers and correction, using the experience of the world's best art pedagogical and art therapy schools.

When the second task will be revealed the presence and state of the art pedagogical and art therapy services in Kazakhstan, including in working with suicidal-directed part of the population.

The third task is aimed at scientific justification art technological approach to the problem of prevention of suicidal behavior among young people. As part of this task will be designed model art technological approach to the problem of prevention of suicidal behavior among young people.

As a result of the fourth task, we are based on the generalization of the experience of national and regional art pedagogical and art therapy schools, develop art therapy techniques in working with suicidal youth-directed.

The practical result will be the introduction into the practice of individual schools art pedagogical and art therapy technologies and techniques in terms of prevention of suicidal behaviors of students.