Scientific journal of al-farabi kaznu selected to The "web of science" international database
International Journal of Mathematics and Physics, published by Al-Farabi Kazakh National University, has been accepted for indexing in Emerging Sources Citation Index of Web of Science Core Collection database (Clarivate Analytics).

AL-FARABI CENTER OPENED IN JAPAN
The opening of the first al-Farabi Center in the "Land of the Rising Sun" was a significant event in the development of cooperation between Japan and Kazakhstan in the framework of the celebration of the 1150-th anniversary of the great thinker al-Farabi. The ceremony was held with the support of the Embassy of the Republic of Kazakhstan in Japan at one of the most prestigious universities - the University of Tsukuba.

THE MAIN ISSUE IS THE STATE OF THE PLANET
At the World Leadership Forum, organized by Columbia University (USA), a speech by the Secretary-General of the UN Antonio Guterres on «The State of the Planet» took place. KAZNU, which leads a Global hub of the UN «Academic impact» program on sustainability, was invited as a partner to participate at the online high-level meeting.

AL-FARABI GLOBAL FORUM
KazNU took part in the International Scientific and Practical Conference "Global Forum Al-Farabi", which took place in Islamad (Pakistan) and became one of the final events of the 1150-th anniversary of the outstanding scientist and thinker in the outgoing year.

THE EURASIAN NETWORK OF UNIVERSITIES IN SUPPORT OF KNOWLEDGE CULTURE IS ESTABLISHED
An international online meeting of heads of higher education institutions was held at KazNU, where the establishment of the «Eurasian Network of Universities in Support of Knowledge Culture without Borders» has been officially announced.

SCIENTIFIC SEMINAR ABOUT THE HERITAGE OF AL-FARABI IN BANGKOK
In the largest state university of Thailand "Chulalongkorn University" in a hybrid (online and offline) format, an international scientific seminar on the topic "Al-Farabi's contribution to the modern world" was held.